Song of the Day: Smile on Us, Kosciuszko

Look Kosciuszko, look from Heaven look down on us! Look down on us!
Can you see us on your mountain?
Just look at us! Oh, just look at us!
Aren't we pretty, aren't we handsome aren't we fit for running and dancing ... so (2x) polonaise let's dance together and smile on us!

Patrz Kościuszko na nas z nieba
No spójrz choć raz, no spójrz choć raz po Twej górze dzisiaj biegną wszyscy wraz, wszyscy wraz.
Różni bardzo fit Polacy oraz Aussies bardzo cacy
A ty poloneza z nami i z wszystkimi biegaczami (2x) zatańcz proszę z nami dzisiaj and ... smile on us.

The Paderewski Music Academy of Chicago

Program

The Music of Polish Kings is a series of excerpts from a colourful show consisting of instrumental music, songs and dances widely performed in the parlours of Polish nobles, on the Polish royal court during the Late Middle Ages, and the Renaissance (XVI-XVIII centuries).

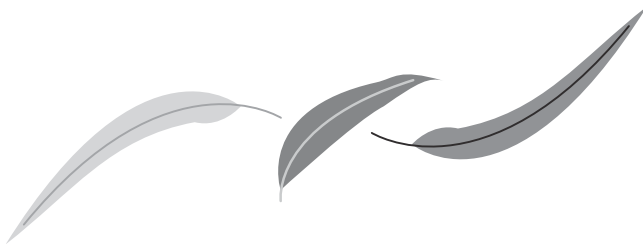

About the Paderewski Music Academy of Chicago

All performers are violin players who study at the Paderewski Academy of Music of Chicago. Their performance is accompanied by the flute, the harpsichord and some small percussion instruments. Some background music is played from a CD recording. The Court dances are performed by soloists and groups of dancers, who wear colourful Polish traditional costumes. Whenever possible, the presentation is enriched with a slide show that features Polish castles, Polish art and culture and the beauty of Polish natural landscapes. The show ends with an American accent as the group presents the short and fun fiddle fantasy, to dance, sing and clap together.
